

DEPENDING ON YOUR BATTLE, MAKE SURE YOU HAVE THE WRITE WEAPON!

The Tale of the HistoTec Pen

Sir Stain is a histotech that is always fighting the good fight, day in and day out. His days start with the cassettes that must be labeled and the never ending siege of frosted slides that must be marked. His brawn and doggish good looks get him through the days. His weapon of choice you might ask? The HistoTec Pen! He swears by its quick drying ability that it allows him to take on more fights than any mere mortal would ever dream. This pen not only sticks by his side through thick and thin, but also his slides through the toughest chemistries and immunos. Most other pens would just smear & dry up in these fights and ask for a proper burial. Sir Stain's secret is out! So if you too want to be Ruler of your castle, pick the weapon that is proven!
